

You are cordially invited to Mr. Arnesen's EXCLUSIVE Tea Party for Reformers & Ideologues!

We will be hosting an antebellum tea party. During this tea you must come dressed for the occasion which means...come as your historical figure! During 19th Century, it was customary to leave a calling card with your contact information. For this party you will do the same, but with some modifications. Remember that during a tea party it is polite to meet and introduce yourself to all people and converse politely.

A. Calling Card Requirements (3x5 index card) _____ points

1. Name
2. 1 minute introduction to who you are
3. Your character's views on the essential question with evidence from primary document(s) and S.F.I
 - a. Essential Question: Defend the position that your area of reform is the most vital for the purification and preservation of the Union.

So we can discuss your point of view and gossip about you after you leave.....

1. Name of your historical figures
2. Lifespan
3. Works he or she authored/events he or she led
4. A quotation (words spoken by the figure or about him or her by a contemporary) and an explanation of significance
5. Historical significance –why do we study this person in APUSH

B. Propaganda/Issue Poster _____ points

Design an original poster about your reform/ideology to convince the public of your point of view

- Must be entirely original, not merely a copy of a historical document
- At least 16 x 20 inch poster
- Clearly conveys the reform are trying to make in American Society or ideology you espouse
